I'm not loving it

Councillor brands McDonald's site an 'absolute disgrace'

CHAOTIC parking outside Dorchester's McDonald's restaurant could be putting road users at risk.

There is also concern about the destruction of the verges, leaving huge potholes, and discarded litter as drivers, unable to get onto the car park, picnic outside and leave their wrappings and cups behind.

Local district and town councillor Gerald Duke has described the situation as "an absolute disgrace" and has called on the company, the Duchy and local councils to make the site safer and tidier.

By Trevor Bevins
trevorbevins@gmail.com

also witnessed a caravan being reversed out of the site, unable to park, bringing traffic on the Martinstown Road and on the nearby roundabout to a complete standstill as its driver and woman passenger attempted the difficult manoeuvre.

Said Councillor Gerald Duke: "The situation is a disgrace...The present situation is dangerous for people using the road and I have no doubt there will be an accident at some point. It is my understanding that Dorset County Council has plans to create a layby to enable parking on the verge, which will help a little, but will not overcome the problem. It will tidy things up but still mean that dozy drivers will continue to give little thought to road users." Councillor Duke says he believes the key to the solution could be the Duchy of Cornwall, which owns the adjoining small field, making it available to the restaurant company.

He says there is also concern locally about the rubbish generated by the site – especially from those who are unable to get into the car park who then eat their meals outside on the verge and then fail to take the litter back in for disposal.

"McDonalds try to litter pick but it begs the question why do users of the place chose to dump their rubbish in the country side?"

"It is a major problem and nobody seems prepared to budge."

A spokesperson for McDonald's said: "We are aware of this matter and have met with the Local Council and Highways Authority in the attempt to find a solution. We have also contacted Duchy (as landowners) but have not been successful in progressing conversations further. We would hope that our attempts to speak with them prove more successful in the future.

"We apologise to local residents and customers for this inconvenience."

ROBIN Goodfellow is a director of CHG South West in Bridport, which supplies the local area with plumbing, heating and electrical services, renewables and water treatment.

He was born in Cerne Abbas in 1988 and moved to Netherbury when he was two-years-old. His parents are farmers and 10 years ago decided to turn their farm organic and take on additional land. They now farm 350 acres of land supplying beef and sheep to the local area.

Robin attended Salway Ash Primary School and Beaminster School before training for an apprenticeship at P & R Hurt when, at 16, he decided not to go down the farming route.

When he was 19 he decided to travel and that is where he says his adventures began...

● WHERE did you start your travelling?

I bought a ticket to Australia and went to work in the west on a large scale arable farm. The Wards' farm totalled 36,000 acres. I worked here for three months until the seeding was complete and then went to Perth to have a break from the 17 hour days that I had just come from.

Here I met a guy who suggested that if I was to ever come to New Zealand he would be able to find me a job and give me a place to stay. Six hours after this conversation I found myself on a plane to Auckland, New Zealand.

Whilst in New Zealand I worked on large scale dairy farm and enjoyed a few days out with the sheep shearing gangs, a skill which my dad taught all of us children.

I remember that I was offered two months working on a trawler, cod fishing of the coast on Bluff (South New Zealand). I did two weeks working here and had a weekend's break. When I arrived back to shore I was greeted with a message to give my oldest brother Christopher a call.

I called him to discover that he was in Ukraine working and that a position had opened up there if I wanted to help out with the harvest. I spoke to the captain of the boat and told him about the opportunity. Twelve hours later I was in the air to begin my 33 hour journey!

I worked in Ukraine for three months which was truly amazing; I would love to go back there one day. I then flew home for a cousin's wedding and then departed the following Monday back to Australia for another harvest.

After harvest I spent three weeks on the Great Barrier Reef before an opportunity came up for me to visit Canada on a young farmers scholarship.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

I loved Canada and the people are second to none. I was based in Nova Scotia and whilst out there visited family, worked in industries from farming to electrical and even took part in the occasional ice hockey match. I can't skate to save my life but I very much enjoyed the experience.

After Canada I flew home with great aspirations to continue travelling to America to work on the ranches, but it was on this return that I met my now beautiful wife Phoebe.

● TELL us about CHG South West

I WORKED away from home for a local company until I was offered the opportunity to manage a renewables department back in Bridport. This was great news for Phoebe and I, and we decided to extend our family.

Another opportunity arose for myself and two partners to go into business together.

CHG South West were formed in February and I'm now proud to say that we employ 50 people from the local area and service and maintain the plumbing, heating, water treatment and electrical services of over 8,000 homes locally.

The company is going from strength to strength and I'm really enjoying the new challenges that running a business brings. We have a stand at the Melpash Show this year, something that my family has always been involved in, so I am looking forward to seeing the local community there!

To further add to this fantastic year we now have the most beautiful girl born on July 2nd 2016 named Philippa Rose Goodfellow.

● WHERE would you like to see your business in five to ten years' time?

MY plan with the business is to keep it at a sustainable level that secures long term employment for our team and give young people the opportunity to learn new skills in our field. Also to maintain a high quality service and peace of mind for all our customers.

● WHAT do you enjoy most about your job?

The thing I enjoy most about my job is meeting new and existing clients. I have always enjoyed the local agricultural shows and look forward to seeing people at Melpash.

● WHAT do you like to do in your spare time?

I look forwards to always being in the Bridport area and building on my family and the business. I have now taken up golf, so any free time I have away from work is spent with my family or hacking up a golf course somewhere!

Have your say on extra Poundbury leisure facilities

EXTRA recreation and leisure facilities could be on the way to Poundbury – with residents being asked to have their say.

Ideas under discussion include a new swimming pool which could be attached to the new Damers School, currently under construction; a Pavilion and changing rooms at the Great Field or some additional landscaping and public sculpture for the Duchy “village”. A fund of around £1.7million is available which is made up of what is known as Section 106 contributions from builders who have been developing homes and commercial buildings at Poundbury for more than 20 years.

Chairman of Poundbury Residents Association, David Leaper, is asking for residents’ views by August 30th with priorities for funding being considered in the early autumn. The ideas do not have to be confined to Poundbury.

Mr Leaper says that other ideas have included a cricket pavilion, football pitches, bicycle humps and a skate park, all on our Great Field, and contributions to include helping develop The Maltings, part of the Brewery Square complex, as performance and arts centre.

Ideas and comments can be sent to Email: profdaiv-leaper@doctors.org.uk or by writing to David Leaper at 33 Peverell Avenue East.

DORCHESTER Tesco marked a quarter of a century at its Weymouth Avenue store at the weekend.

The company moved to the site from South Street in a deal, involving Duchy land, which also resulted in the building of the town football club’s Avenue Stadium.

Customers were invited to take part in free competitions on Saturday with small gifts for children who competed to find the number 25 throughout the store.

Amongst those celebrating the milestone was check out manager Sharon Mitchell who, apart from a short spell at the Portland Tesco, has been at the Dorchester store since it opened.

“I would guess there are 10-15 others who have been here since the start and four or five, including one with about 40 years service, who used to work at the old store in South Street,” said Sharon.

Pictured with her is one of the more recent recruits, Shona Sealy, a customer assistant who has been at the store for one and a half years.

Prison plans rejected

By Trevor Bevens

THE developer behind the redevelopment of the Dorchester prison site say they will need time to assess their options after local planners rejected the scheme.

City and Country failed to convince West Dorset’s planning committee that they were unable to find space for “affordable” homes on the site.

The committee rejected their application by six votes to four.

A viability report had backed City and Country’s claims that they could not afford to build affordable homes on the site – despite an estimated profit of £11million from the 189-home scheme.

Campaign

More than 200 people had objected about the lack of affordable homes on the site with a campaign by the local Labour Party pointing out that more than 1,000 people are on the council list in need of a lower cost home.

It pointed out that West Dorset District Council’s local plan requires developments to include a minimum of 35 per cent affordable housing.

City and Country associate director Richard Winsborough said the company would now assess its options.

He said: “We are committed to delivering proposals that preserve the heritage of this site, are viable, and meet the aspirations of the community and elected representatives.

“It is extremely important to us that these buildings do not deteriorate any further, and a new sustainable, beneficial solution is found for them.”

The company had said from the outset that it would not be able to back proposals for “affordable” homes, whether for sale or shared equity, pointing out that many of the apartments and houses would be at the lower end of the market because of their size.

A viability assessment said the company was expected to make an 18 per cent profit of more than £11million against development costs of nearly £62million.

There were also concerns from North

Square residents about the effect on their homes of a new block to flats, proposed for the former prison car park – and it was this which, ultimately, led to the rejection of the scheme by the planning committee, the resolution put forward by Sherborne Liberal Democrat Councillor Robin Legg.

Councillor Legg said that “bulk and scale” of the development was also a cause for rejection.

Bus drivers prepare for talks with mediators in bid to end pay dispute

WEYMOUTH and Bridport bus drivers, now on their eighth week of strikes, say they are prepared to go to arbitration to end the dispute.

The Unite union, which is supporting more than 100 drivers, said it had contacted the conciliation service Acas on Thursday.

Unite regional officer Bob Lanning said the talks offer "should finally put the nail in the coffin of misleading claims by the company that Unite is not prepared to go to arbitration".

"We have always been prepared to go to arbitration as long as any package hammered out under the auspices of Acas is put to the drivers, which is normal industrial relations' practice," he added.

"The ball is now in the company's court."

The strikes have been going on since the third week in June with a fresh round of industrial action this week and another round of stoppages planned for Monday, August 22nd.

The union say local drivers earn £8.80 an hour, less than First drivers elsewhere, and they want it to rise to £9.50 over three years, to match the wages of drivers in Yeovil.

First has previously said the claim was unaffordable and is, meanwhile, claiming that more than 90 per cent of its local services are operating as normal.

Marc Reddy, Managing Director, First Dorset says: "First Dorset is doing everything it can to minimise disruption for bus passengers, and around nine out of 10 busses will run as normal.

"We are disappointed by the decision of the union to prolong the misery to bus passengers by calling a further seven-day stoppage. The union is putting the viability of the First Dorset business in jeopardy by their actions. Despite the fair pay offer on the table, we've been unsuccessful in making meaningful progress after many rounds of talks with the union."

For timetable information regarding which services will run on strike days, visit: www.first-group.com/dorset.

Customers seeking more information about services during the industrial action can also contact First Bus' Customer Services Team, on 0345 6020121.

■ THIS year's Dorchester Warm Festival in the Borough Gardens on Sunday lived up to its name – with temperatures in the mid 20s.

Hundreds flocked to the gardens for six hours of free music and other entertainment to raise money for the local Steve Charles Help a Friend Fund.

The annual fundraising event, the sixth so far, also featured a bar, BBQ, raffle, cakes, and plenty of activities for all the family including bouncy inflatables for the children.

"We've again been lucky with the weather, it's turning out to be a brilliant day and well supported," said chairman Ben King.

Those attending are not charged admission but are asked to donate to the charity, named after the late local musician Steve Charles.

The Steve Charles Help a Friend Fund, which says it could do with additional volunteers, can be contacted via its website - www.hafhaf.co.uk.

Inspectors say hospital 'requires improvement'

ENGLAND'S Chief Inspector of Hospitals has rated the services provided by Dorset County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust as "Requires Improvement" following an inspection by the Care Quality Commission in March.

A team of inspectors visited Dorset County Hospital in Dorchester and services provided by the trust at two community hospitals.

The trust's medical care, surgery, critical care and children's and young people's services were all rated "Good" in the report.

However, maternity, end of life care, outpatients and urgent and emergency services were rated "Requires Improvement".

Professor Edward Baker, Deputy Chief Inspector of Hospitals, said: "Dorset County Hospital NHS Foundation Trust is midway through a review of its strategy which is aimed at working more closely with other organisations in the county to deliver a range of integrated services between them. There is a relatively new executive team who recognise that there is work still to do before patients see all the benefits.

"Although we found there was a commitment to provide safe care and to improve performance across the trust, this had not yet been achieved. In particular, the board was not properly aware of the improvements needed in some services, such as end of life care where areas for improvement were identified two-years-ago. There is now evidence of a shift of focus to continuous quality improvement. To their credit the trust has sought external advice and are working to improve how the board monitor quality and risks.

"Throughout our inspection we found that staff were enthusiastic about the trust and the quality of care they provided - although there were not always enough nurses or doctors to provide safe care. The trust is still working towards a full seven-day services, and there is not a formal 'hospital at night' team.

"While we have found areas of good practice, we also found areas where the need for improvement had previously been identified, but the changes had not implemented or embedded. Following this inspection we will continue to monitor the trust's progress and we will return at a later date to check on its progress."

Dorset County Hospital's Chief Executive Patricia Miller said: "I am extremely proud of everything our staff have achieved in their tireless efforts to provide the very best care to our patients.

"The CQC inspectors were full of praise for the obvious commitment of our staff throughout the organisation and the many 'good' ratings we have received reflect this.

"The overall rating of 'requires improvement' does not mean Dorset County Hospital is providing poor care. The thousands of local people using our services know this is not the case. It means we have more work to do to bring all our services up to the high standards we expect at DCH. We are already striving towards this and our aim is to achieve a rating of 'outstanding' for our hospital.

"We have already acted on many of the recommendations made by the inspectors for improvements and we are confident that this will be recognised in follow up visits by inspectors.

"I would like to thank all staff who worked so hard with the inspectors before, during and after their inspection to provide a huge amount of information to help the CQC reach their conclusions."

Full reports for the trust have been published on CQC's website <http://www.cqc.org.uk/provider/RBD>

Police seek witnesses to motorcycle collision

POLICE are appealing for witnesses after a motorcyclist collided with a parked car in the early hours of last Wednesday morning (August 10th).

The incident happened at around 1.50am in Field Barn Drive, Weymouth.

A red Suzuki motorcycle, ridden by a 27-year-old man from the town, collided with a parked Mercedes car.

The rider sustained serious life-threatening injuries and was taken to Southampton Hospital for treatment.

The road was closed for several hours while crash investigators worked at the scene.

Police Sergeant Joe Pardey, of Dorset Police's Traffic Unit, said: "I am appealing for witnesses to the collision to contact me.

"I would also like to speak to anyone who may have seen the manner of riding of the motorcycle prior to the incident or who has any information that can assist with my investigation."

Do you recognise these people?

POLICE investigating an assault in Weymouth have released CCTV images of people they would like to speak with and are appealing for them to come forward.

At around 5.15am on Saturday, July 16th a man was walking alone in Maiden Street in the town following a night out with friends when he was assaulted.

The victim - a 22-year-old local man - sustained a broken nose and was taken to Dorset County Hospital for treatment.

Police Sergeant Mark Dent, of Weymouth police, said: "As part of our investigation we are now in a position to issue CCTV images of some people we would like to speak with who were in the area at the time of the incident.

"I am appealing to those pictured, or anyone who recognises them, to please contact Dorset Police as I believe they may have important information that could assist our enquiries."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Dorset Police via email 101@dorset.pnn.police.uk or by calling 101, quoting 55160107054.

Consultation to start on future of TIC

A PUBLIC consultation has started on the future of Dorchester's Tourist Information Centre in Trinity Street.

But residents, visitors and organisations are only being offered two options.

West Dorset District Council Executive Committee has agreed to consult on just two options, which are:

- Relocating the tourist information

By Trevor Bevins

centre service into the Dorchester Library and Learning Centre, South Walks Road, Dorchester

- Replacing the existing service with an unstaffed tourist information point.

The consultation will continue until Tuesday, October 11th.

People can fill in the questionnaire online at dorsetforyou.com/DorchesterTIC consultation or for those not able to go online, a paper copy is available from the district council's offices at South Walks House.

Councillor Mary Penfold, West Dorset District Council's Enabling Portfolio Holder, said: "We are asking the public for their views on the future delivery of the tourist information service in Dorchester. "No decisions have been made yet. The results of the consultation will be taken into consideration when a decision is made in December 2016.

"As part of the district council's service review programme, we are reviewing West Dorset's tourist information service, which operates tourist information centres in Dorchester, Sherborne, Bridport and Lyme Regis. The review aims to provide future sustainable methods and options for delivering a modernised tourist information service whilst achieving indicative savings of £300,000 by April 2017.

The Executive Committee has also approved the transfer of Bridport TIC to the town council. The service review focussed on the transfer of the service to the town council, as the town council expressed interest in taking over the management of the TIC early in the review process. The service will remain in its existing location providing a similar service with existing employees, with only a change of management organisation.

Options for Lyme Regis and Sherborne tourist information centres are still being explored and will be considered later in the year.

West Dorset District Council has to save £4.3million in the next three years to balance the budget, caused by rising costs, increased demand and reductions in Government funding.

For more information about the service review and the consultation visit dorsetforyou.com/DorchesterTICconsultation.

■ AN exhibition of paintings opens in the Old School Village Hall at Upwey this weekend.

On show will be the work of students who attend art classes at The Studio Arts School organised by Justin and Nikki Cooke.

"We are immensely proud of the work produced by everyone who comes to all our classes at Upwey.

This is an exhibition of paintings by some very talented artists," said Nikki.

The exhibition opens on Saturday, August August 1pm - 5pm and continues Sunday, August 21st 10.30am - 5pm

Pictured is one of the paintings which will be in the exhibition by Judy Backwell.

Colleagues pay tribute to PCSO

POLICE officers in Weymouth and Portland have paid tribute to colleague PCSO Lynne Huckins, who has died following a short illness.

A tribute on the Portland Neighbourhood Police Team Facebook page described PCSO Huckins as a pivotal member of the team and community, and said she would be missed by colleagues.

She leaves behind three children.

The tribute read: "It is with great sadness that we announce the sudden and unexpected death of Police Community Support Officer (PCSO) Lynne Huckins.

"She died after a recent diagnosis of ill health and was being cared for by her loving children away from Portland.

"Lynne was the longest serving member of the Portland Neighbourhood Policing Team, her passion for policing the local area was obvious for all to see and she was a pivotal member of her team and community.

"Lynne joined Thames Valley Police in the early 1970s as a Police Constable; her photographic memory and sense of humour made her an ideal undercover officer. She was also part of the famous 'Op Julie' that was ground breaking in its work to catch those involved in the production of LSD.

"She returned to policing in 2004 as a PCSO with the majority of her service on Portland. Lynne was known by generations of school children through her work within the schools on the island and at local youth clubs. Lynne was a Dorset Police Equality Champion for the elderly and vulnerable, showing her passion for this particular section of her community.

"On a personal level, Lynne loved Portland and was proud to be involved in the work done by local people and groups (particularly in Victoria Park and Easton Gardens). She would often walk her beloved Border Collie dog, 'Raffy' through the tranquil settings of the quarries.

"As well as being a fantastic PCSO, Lynne was a mother, grandmother, sister, Aunt and friend to many. She leaves her three children Damien, Rebecca and Gavin.

"Lynne will be sadly missed by all of her family, friends and colleagues."

The Portland Neighbourhood police Team have invited members of the public to leave messages, stories and photographs of Lynne on their Facebook page, www.facebook.com/portlandnpt/, which will be passed on to her family.

Police to crack down on school holiday anti-social behaviour

THE school holidays have again brought problems with groups of young people in Weymouth and Dorchester.

Dorset Police say they will be paying more attention to incidents of anti-social behaviour. These have included complaints about swearing, littering and underage drinking in both towns.

Now a new scheme will see police focus on known problem areas, take the offenders name and address before escorting them home to parents or guardians.

Neighbourhood policing teams (NPTs) in Weymouth and Dorchester will be working with the district and borough councils.

Councillor Alan Thacker, West Dorset District Council Portfolio holder for Community Safety and Access, said: "This is one of the many initiatives the district council is involved in to reduce anti-social behaviour.

"We'll be working with parents to make children aware of their behaviour and the potential consequences."

Parents will receive a letter from anti-social behaviour caseworkers detailing the problem and advising them of potential consequences.

If a young person receives three letters within six months they will be made to attend a meeting to discuss rectifying their behaviour.

Said Dorchester Neighbourhood Inspector Mike Darby: "It will also encourage parents to fully appreciate the potential safety implications of groups of young people congregating in unsupervised areas, late at night, without their parent or carer knowing where they are."

The 'three strikes' programme could result in an Acceptable Behaviour Contract being issued, detailing a list of prohibitions designed to prevent future offences.

Councillor Francis Drake, Weymouth and Portland Borough Council's brief holder for community safety, said: "Reducing anti-social behaviour and making areas such as the town centre and beach front a safer place has been a key priority for the council for some time.

"We want everyone to take pride in the borough and that includes behaving in the right way."

DORCHESTER Strollers walking group travelled to Easton Square, Portland, to meet up for one of their special walks outside the county town.

In fine weather more than 20 Strollers enjoyed the walk which included visits to Church Ope Cove and nearby Rufus Castle.

Dorchester Strollers is an accredited Walking for Health Group which meets twice a week on Monday mornings and Tuesday afternoons.

Julia to walk South Coast for Age UK

A DORCHESTER Age UK volunteer is preparing for a 100km South Coast challenge walk.

Julia Foggo, (41), will raise funds for Age UK Dorchester where her mother, Hilary, is one of the organisers.

Julia, who lives in Weymouth, has a target of £500 and is hoping that friends, family and supporters of Age UK will back her.

The walk takes place on August 27th between Eastborne and Arundel, crossing the South Downs on the way. Walking through the day and night Julia will be testing her endurance in order to raise money for the local Reach Out service.

"I like to create a personal challenge for myself each year and am looking forward to the experience. Getting past the half way point and travelling at night will be challenging, but the fact that I'm raising money for a good cause will push me forward to make sure I don't give up."

The Reach Out programme aims to help people reconnect with the community, and tackle the isolation experienced by many older people across rural Dorset. The support given by volunteers and local

Cider festival returns

DORCHESTER'S second Cider Festival comes to the Borough Gardens this Saturday – organised by the Round Table.

Last year's event surprised everyone by its success with many of the cider producers having to rush in extra supplies.

The free event will be open from 3pm to 10pm and will also offer food and live music.

More than 60 ciders will be on offer, many of them made in Dorset or neighbouring counties.

For those keen to understand more the Millhouse Cider Museum and cider historian and author Alan Stone will also be talking about cider making and answering questions.

Local blues artist Danny Adams will be amongst the performers with The Darwins, Dexeter, The Paper Trains and Skimmity Hitchers also taking to the bandstand throughout the day and evening.

Restaurant award

ROOM To, the restaurant at the Wessex Royale Hotel in Dorchester, has followed up its recent AA Rosette award with a gold award in this year's Taste of the West awards.

Said Steve Chaldecott, Manager of The Wessex Royale: "I'd like to congratulate our chef, Nick Cherry, and his team for getting this great award."

"This award follows on from the AA Rosette awarded early this summer, while we've also just heard that the English Tourist Board have, for the second year in a row, given us their breakfast award for the exceptionally high standard of our breakfasts."

■ THE Stepping into Nature team celebrate their outstanding contribution to the UK's AONBs award

A PROJECT which helps people with dementia to improve their health and access the countryside has won an award for the Dorset Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) team.

The Stepping into Nature project received this year's Bowland Award from the National Association for Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty (NAAONB), which recognises an outstanding contribution to the UK's AONBs.

The project is run by the Dorset AONB team alongside partners including the Alzheimer's Society, Dorset Forest School and the county council's Partnership for Older People Programme (POPP).

It offers a range of outdoor activities for people with dementia and their carers, enabling them to be creative and socialise.

Regular activities include the Green Wood Club in ancient woodland at Netherbury near Bridport, where a small group gets together once a month to learn and rediscover traditional woodworking skills.

The team also organised walks at Thorncombe Woods near Dorchester.

More than 200 delegates voted for Stepping into Nature to win from a competitive shortlist.

Stepping into Nature is currently a pilot but the Dorset AONB team recently reached the second stage of a Big Lottery Fund bid for £300,000 to extend it for three years.

Julie Hammon, project assistant for the Dorset AONB team, said: "One of the aims of the AONB is enabling all people to be able to access the landscape easily. Together with our partners, I am delighted that our fellow AONBs have recognised Stepping into Nature's contribution to improving people's health and wellbeing in the landscape."

Dorset libraries are hosting a series of Stepping into Nature engagement sessions during August to find out how people get out into the countryside. The dates are: Charmouth Library, Wednesday, August 17th; Beaminster Library, Thursday 18th, Bridport Library, Friday 19th and Lyme Regis, Monday 22nd.

To find out more about Stepping into Nature and the work of the Dorset AONB team, visit www.dorsetaonb.co.uk.

Councillor resigns

THE chair of Stratton Parish Council, Councillor Gill Slade has resigned the post and as a parish councillor on Stratton Parish Council.

Her resignation takes place with immediate effect.

In a statement on the village website the council said: "Stratton Parish Council would like to say a big thank you to Gill for all the time and effort she has put into the work she has undertaken on behalf of the council, we are very grateful to her. We are equally sure that residents of the parish would wish to join us in extending to Gill and her husband Roger the very best of wishes for the future."

As Vice-Chairman, Councillor Cheryl Hobbs will take over as chairman until a permanent chairman is elected.

The council is now down to five instead of seven serving councillors and says it would be pleased to hear from any resident who would be interested in joining the council.

Did you see blue car?

POLICE are asking for information about a small bright blue car seen in Stratton at around the time of a burglary in the village last Wednesday, (August 10th).

A house towards the eastern end of Dorchester Road was broken into before 3pm and a number of items stolen.

A small bright blue car, possibly metallic, was seen driving away, westwards. The occupants stopped a resident and asked them if they wanted their drive done.

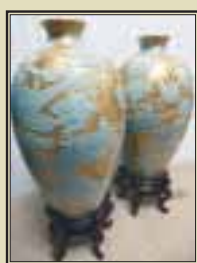

Any information should be passed to the Police by calling 101.

■ PAUL Carpenter from Winfrith at the wheel of a 1970s Bristol RE coach

■ OPEN top tours were popular in the sunshine

On the buses

BUS users are often the first to complain when two arrive at the same time – but that wasn't the case in Dorchester on Sunday.

For the second year in a row the West Country Historic Omnibus & Transport Trust (WHOTT) brought a fleet of 19 coaches and double deckers to the county town – offering free trips.

The event coincided with the launch of a new book on the depots and facilities of Western National and Southern National. Copies were available for bus enthusiasts from the WHOTT stand along with other publications and a display of photographs.

The event, which was sponsored by local bus company, Damory, attracted hundreds of people to take a free trip or two within the town and to neighbouring villages. Three coaches were also offering 'mystery tours', which proved to be popular.

Said chairman, Bob Crawley: "We've had queues from the first service at 9.20am throughout the day. Once again it's been popular and I have no doubt we will be back again next year."

Among the oldest vehicles was a 1951 Bristol LS Royal Blue coach, while the most recent was one of Dorchester all-electric buses.

Volunteer driver for the day was Paul Carpenter from Winfrith who worked for Hants and Dorset in the 1970s and 80s.

"People love the old buses, I've been busy throughout the day and have run three short trips and two longer ones, all of which were pretty full," said Paul at the wheel of a Bristol RE which came into service in 1972.

WHOTT is a registered charity with vehicles across the South West.

Website launched to help fight poverty

DORCHESTER Poverty Action Group has launched its first website.

The charity, which works to alleviate poverty is hoping the site will encourage more local people to support its work.

Margaret Barker chair of the trustees said: "The Dorchester area appears to be very affluent, but there are many people struggling to make ends meet and keep a roof over their heads. It is a hidden problem, but we help hundreds of local people every year, where sometimes less than £100 can make a real difference. Many local people hearing about our work wanted to donate to help more local people, but couldn't find us as we had no website."

The charity has been working in the area for more than 25 years and through their work it led to the setting up of the local Credit Union Wyvern Savings and Loans, Second Chance Furniture in Weymouth and the Hub in Dorchester, although now closed. The charity also works closely with Dorchester's Citizens Advice Bureau, Social Services, Health Visitors and other professionals.

The charity are holding an open meeting on Monday, October 3rd at 7pm at the Dorford Centre, when Sarah Smith of the YOU trust, will be talking about supporting people who are homeless or at risk of losing their tenancies and Ruth Davies, a hospital social worker, will be speaking about enabling people to return home from hospital.

■ WELDMAR Hospicecare Trust has been given £300 following a vote by local housing staff.

Magna Housing has been giving staff the chance to wear more casual clothes at work once a month on "Dress down Friday" in exchange for a £1 donation to charity.

Tanya Churchill, communication and design manager at Magna (pictured right), said: "We do our best to support the communities we are based in, and this is a great way of giving something back to local charities. Weldmar is well respected in this area and we're really pleased that it was one of the charities that staff voted for."

Grant Usmar, director of fundraising for Weldmar Hospicecare Trust (pictured), said: "I'd like to say a big thank you for this donation on behalf of all the patients and families that we support across Dorset.

"Our services are free and we only receive a third of our funding from the NHS. This means donations like this make a vital contribution towards our running costs."

Police seek witnesses to Legacy Trail vandalism

VANDALS in Weymouth have damaged a decorative stone wall at Littlemoor which marks the start of the legacy trail.

The wall was repaired earlier in the summer by Dorset Wildlife Trust but has now been attacked again with several large stones pulled off.

Police in Weymouth are appealing for witnesses and anyone with information about the criminal damage to get in touch with them.

Said DWT Communications Officer Sally Welbourn: "This unique stone way-point not only marks the start of the legacy trail from the 2012 Olympics, but is also a place for the local community and visitors to enjoy views across the Lorton Valley Nature Park.

"We are shocked at the destruction which has occurred here and hope that anyone who can shed light on the perpetrators will come forward to ensure that this doesn't happen again.

"The time and money it takes to repair it could compromise the valuable work Dorset Wildlife Trust do to protect wildlife."

Anyone with information is asked to contact Dorset Police at www.dorset.police.uk, via email 101@dorset.pnn.police.uk or by calling 101, quoting incident number 5:282.

A blooming good show

STRATTON and District Home and Garden Club showcased the skill of local growers, artists, cooks and craft-workers on Saturday.

The annual summer show, held in the village hall, saw a resurgence of interest in classes for children.

"We set up a show committee to try and bring some more life into the event and in particular to attract more entries from families and children," said committee member Karen Boulton.

In all the show attracted around 270 entries with a busy time for the Stratton Adventure Playground Group who were selling cream teas as a fund-raising venture for their project.

The show also provided a chance for groups such as the Stratton Art Group, which meets on Friday mornings in the hall, to show off their work.

Village lace makers were also at the event, demonstrating their skills.

The group meets once a month in the hall from 10am to 3pm and range from complete beginners to more experienced lace makers.

"We are a small, but very friendly group and would welcome new members," said Pat Harper who was demonstrating the making of Torchon Lace at the Show.

Prospective members should contact Gilliam Membury on Dorchester (01305) 268302.

The group next meet on Saturday, September 10th.

Swimming sessions

TWO "Finding Dory" swimming sessions for children are being held in the coming days at the Dorchester Sports Centre.

They are part of a national fitness campaign which has been inspired by the Disney film, Finding Dory. The joint Disney, Change4Life and the Amateur Swimming Association (ASA) campaign aims to make exercise fun and help children get the 60 minutes of moderate to vigorous physical activity they need each day.

The Finding Dory inspired swim sessions, which are co-created with the ASA will provide an hour of in-water storytelling for the whole family, teaching children key swimming skills as they are taken on a journey with Dory and friends, led by trained instructors.

The Dorchester Sports Centre Finding Dory Swim are being held on Saturday August 20th 2.30pm-3.30pm and Thursday August 25th 3pm - 4pm. Phone 01305 858400 for more details.

Library tea party

THE Friends of Crossways Library are holding a Summer Tea Party in Crossways Library next Saturday, August 20th from 2pm-4pm.

The event will offer the chance to meet a barn owl, browse the books and jigsaws for sale, watch demonstrations, or buy examples of Anodised Aluminium and Viking Jewellery.

Homemade cake or scones will also be on offer. Free entry.

Hospital scores highly in patient led assessments

PATIENTS attending Dorset County Hospital can be assured of high standards in cleanliness, food, privacy and the environment according to the latest national scores.

The Dorchester hospital performed well in all areas in the 2016 PLACE assessments, with all scores above or in keeping with the national average.

The assessments have also highlighted areas for improvement though and the hospital is working on plans to raise standards further.

Patient-Led Assessments of the Care Environment (PLACE) published by NHS Digital is now in its fourth year, and for the first time the assessments have considered how well healthcare environments support the provision of care for those with a disability.

PLACE assessments are undertaken by teams of NHS and private/independent healthcare providers, with at least half of each assessing team made up of members of the public (known as patient assessors).

Dorset County Hospital scored:

● Cleanliness – DCH 98.7

per cent (national average 98.2 per cent)

● Food – DCH 90.86 per cent (national average 88.2 per cent)

● Privacy, Dignity and Wellbeing – DCH 85.07 per cent (national average 84.2 per cent)

● Condition, Appearance and Maintenance – DCH 91.14 per cent (average 93.4 per cent)

● Dementia – DCH 68.65 per cent (average 75.3 per cent)

● Disability – DCH 76.49 per cent (average 78.8 per cent)

The hospital's Chief Operating Officer and Acting Director of Nursing and Quality Julie Pearce said: "These results reflect the ongoing hard work of all staff to improve standards at our hospital."

"The PLACE assessments are really important in helping us understand the environment, nutritional standards and cleanliness of the hospital from a patient perspective."

"We are really pleased to see we have again exceeded the national average in cleanliness, food and privacy, but recognise we have more work to do."

"We take the feedback very seriously and we are already working on improvements to make our facilities more dementia and disability friendly."

Cake bakers needed

VOLUNTEER bakers and help with refreshments are needed for a Stratton musical evening in September to raise funds for the work of the Weldmar Hospice.

It will be held in the Village Hall on Friday, September 16th with refreshments being sold.

Organiser Dave Cartwright would appreciate volunteer cake bakers and people to help serve refreshments during the evening.

He can be contacted via email david@thecartwrightsuk.com or 07801 730642 for further details.

■ HAS Dorchester West the cleanest signs on the Heart of Wessex, Weymouth - Bristol railway line?

Colin Bowditch, one of the eight volunteers who look after the station, is reckoned by his fellow volunteers to be "a demon cleaner"

Said one of the regular helpers, Sue Blake: "If you haven't walked through the station or taken the train recently, take the time to look at the station which is looking very colourful with flowers in tubs and in the borders."

Regular working parties are held on Friday mornings when you can see volunteers in their high visibility jackets along the station busy at work. Potential volunteers are welcome to come and join them.

MELPLASH AGRICULTURAL SHOW 2016 - CHILDREN & TEENAGERS GO FREE AT THIS YEAR'S MELPLASH SHOW

The Melplash Agricultural Society is very pleased to announce that all children and teenagers aged 16 years and under will go FREE to this year's Melplash Show taking place on Thursday 25 August. The annual Show is always a great day out for all the family and now with all youngsters 16 years and under being able to attend for free it really is a day in the Bridport calendar not to be missed.

The Toolstation main ring is full of special attractions including the Jason Smyth's Adrenaline Tour performing breath taking stunts on quad bikes and motorcycles. The successful Discover Farming marquee that attracted fantastic crowds of youngsters last year will be even bigger and better; there will again be a variety of 'Farm to Food' activities and interactive demonstrations for children to get involved with and to learn about food production and farming. This year there will also be a dedicated marquee called 'Farmers for the Future' where older children/young adults can experience first-hand a selection of the new technologies that are being used in farming today for example robotic milking and the use of drones for inspecting crops.

Local farmers will be competing for the top prizes in the many livestock classes. There are expected to be record numbers of cattle, goats, sheep and pigs all competing in their individual classes. For horse lovers there is an outstanding selection of horse, pony and donkey competitions.

There will be hundreds of home and craft exhibits on display, alongside a large horticultural and floral art show. Alongside the Best Bridport Banger Competition, there is a new Scotch egg competition sponsored by Sausage and Pear with excellent prizes to dine at their Station Kitchen in West Bay.

There are a host of other attractions: the amusing Sheep Show, Punch and Judy, over 350 trade stands, 2 indoor craft marquees, a fun fair, a magnificent food hall with cookery theatre, the popular countryside area with its displays and country sports arena - ferret and terrier racing and a falconry display on horseback. With so much to see visitors of all ages are guaranteed a full days entertainment and will be spoilt for choice.

FARMERS FOR THE FUTURE

THIS year the Society is very pleased to have a new marquee dedicated at showing youngsters how technology is being used in farming to improve animal welfare, environment care and food production including.

- Drones to survey and inspect crops
- GPS technology to drive tractors
- Robots for feeding and milking cows
- RFID for identifying and tracking livestock
- Bolus technology to help manage the health of cattle & sheep
- Mobile 4G technology for CCTV

Visitors to the marquee will be able to get first-hand experience of the kit and even have a go at using it.

Farmers for the Future is part of the Society's Discover Farming project, in place to help educate, stimulate and enthuse local youngsters about the many different career opportunities available in farming and agriculture today.

There will also be an even large Discover Farming marquee at the Show this year, packed full of hands on food to plate activities for the under 12's.

MELPLASH FOOD HALL CELEBRATES THE BEST REGIONAL FOOD & DRINK

THIS year it is going to be even bigger with over 50 producers on show. There is a good mix of meat, sausages, fruit and cheeses as well as a vast array of preserves, cakes, bread and locally produced juice, cider, wine and spirits including vodka made from milk! As always it is going to be the place to find the finest and tastiest local food and drink to take home or eat on-the-go. The producer recognised as the best by this year's judges Arthur and Janet Watson will receive the Sandwich Plate presented to the Society by Lady Sandwich when she was President in 2012. This will be awarded in the main ring during the Society's award ceremony at 3.30 pm.

EVERYONE VISITING THE COOKERY THEATRE AT THE MELPLASH SHOW THIS YEAR IS IN FOR A REAL TREAT!

LINED up are a number of local food and drink experts who are going to show you how to cook some amazing dishes, how to shake up a cocktail or two, make award winning jam and learn the art of wine tasting.

THE passing of a centuries old Navy tradition has been marked at a Portland pub.

The 315-year-old tradition of a daily rum ration came to an end on July 31st 1970 when Ministers decided that drinking strong alcohol was not compatible with operating modern high-tech equipment.

To commemorate the passing of the tradition a group of wizened, ancient mariners gathered together at the Corner House Inn. Landlord Jeff Chitty and Stoker Andy Porter were there to oversee proceedings and to administer the tots of rum. Once everyone was in a suitably mellow state, there was a charity auction of Maritime Memorabilia. SSAFA Weymouth and Portland Division were the nominated charity with the auction raising a total of £1,000 and a further £201.26 in the SSAFA collecting tins.

The money will be used to support their work with local veterans.

On Wednesday, August 10th, a cheque for £1,000 was presented to Derek Hope, of SSAFA's Weymouth and Portland Division.

Derek thanked the customers the Corner House Inn and members of the Tot Club and said: "This huge donation will make a tremendous difference to SSAFA in their work supporting local Veterans from all services. The generosity of all those involved is exceptional."

SSAFA can offer practical,

MINE Host Jeff Chitty, SSAFA Divisional Secretary Derek Hope, Organiser Andy Porter

emotional and financial assistance to all Veterans. Anyone who knows any former servicemen or servicewomen who may be in difficulty should contact the local SSAFA office on 01305-458487 or ssafaweyport@talktalkbusiness.net.

Mr Hope said the SSAFA Weymouth and Portland Division were always looking for new volunteers.

Race for Ralpie

A "RACE for Ralpie" evening is being held this weekend at Pilgrim House in Brewer's Quay, Weymouth.

The event, which starts at 6.45pm on Saturday, August 20th, will raise funds for the family of 11-month-old Ralpie Ellard who was born with a severe form of cerebral palsy.

Weymouth Rotary Club is helping the family with the event, which hopes to raise enough money for specialist equipment.

Tickets are £12.50 and include a fish and chip dinner.

Donations in the form of raffle prizes or items which can be auctioned on the evening are needed. Visit www.facebook.com/Raising-for-Ralpie-1008538509224297/ for more info.

Best in the west

A WEYMOUTH fish and chip shop has been named as one of the best in the South West.

The harbourside "Bennett's on the Waterfront" will now compete for the regional Independent Takeaway Fish and Chip Shop of the Year in the National Fish & Chip Awards, organised by Seafish. During the coming weeks it will be visited anonymously by judges.

Dementia walk

THE next nature walk for those affected by dementia is being held at the Thorncombe Wood Local Nature Reserve near Dorchester on Tuesday, August 23rd.

The walks are an opportunity for people living with dementia and their carers to get outdoors in a safe and supportive way with Rangers trained in dementia awareness.

They will also include prose and poems from Thomas Hardy's work. The event starts at 2pm, with the hour long session ending with coffee at the Hardy's Birthplace Visitors Centre.

There will also be sessions on September 6th and 20th.

The cost is £1.50 including refreshments, and spaces are limited, so please book by emailing - hardysbirthplace@dorsetcc.gov.uk or calling Dorchester (01305) 251228.

Museum plans exhibition

AN exhibition exploring future plans for Dorset County Museum closes at the end of this week, Friday, August 19th.

The £13million project, "Tomorrow's Museum for Dorset", aims to create new gallery spaces and add a learning centre while also improving access to thousands of items currently kept in store.

Director of the museum, Dr Jon Murden, is urging local people to visit the exhibition and to make comments on the proposals.

World tour captured on camera

■ "CUBA" by Barbara Jenkins

■ "INCOMING Snow" by John Tilsley

THE annual Dorset Independent Photographers' exhibition will be taking place in Dorchester's Borough Gardens House from Monday, August 22nd until the 29th.

The event will be open from 10am each day and will feature a range of pieces in a variety of style.

The exhibition has something of a 'world tour' theme about it - from the snowstorms of Iceland to the heat of Cuba.

The show features the work of six photographers, whose images also celebrate the beauty of the south-west in a variety of styles using traditional film and digital media in both monochrome and colour.

John Tilsley's love of the far north is expressed in his dramatic black and white photographs of Iceland's extreme weather conditions in the early spring, which he sets against the soft, muted colours of a Finnish winter encountered while cross-country skiing. He is also exhibiting images from a long-term project to document the New Forest pony sales.

Barbara Jenkins has taken to the streets of Cuba to share her impressions of the people, the intense colour and light. Her aim is to show the people without feeling she is prying into their lives.

Closer to home, Malcolm Macnaughtan uses 5" x 4" sheet film in a large format camera to produce black and white prints using traditional darkroom techniques. This year he focuses on Wells Cathedral.

Andy White has found inspiration in Dorset's wildflower meadows. Given access to a number of small meadows in a private garden over the past two years, he has exploited the soft light of early morning to portray the diversity and complexity of the meadows as living entities.

Tim Edwards, a founder member of Dorset Independent Photographers, draws his ideas and images from a wide range of urban, rural and marine environments, and for this year's show has abandoned traditional framing in favour of canvas to display his seascapes.

Ian Chapman, another co-founder, has drawn on the experience earlier this year of a walk from his home in Portesham to the north coast of Devon. He has sought to convey something of that experience in his monochrome prints.

■ "WELLS" by Malcolm Macnaughtan

Hawkchurch Fete

MONDAY 22ND AUGUST TO BANK HOLIDAY MONDAY 29TH AUGUST

GREAT FUN FOR ALL THE FAMILY!

A great day out for all the family this Bank Holiday!

AS Bank Holiday Monday draws closer the final preparations are being made to the Annual Hawkchurch Village Fete Weekend.

The highlight of the village calendar, this year's fete promises to be a great day out for all the family.

With a jam packed programme of events taking place not only on fete day itself, but throughout the week, you are guaranteed to have a great bank holiday in Hawkchurch.

The fete week kicks off on Monday 22nd with the family beetle drive. See if you can be the fastest to make a beetle. This starts at 7pm in the village hall. Great fun for all the family, £2 per adult & £1 per child with prizes for the highest adult and highest child score of the evening. Refreshments included.

In the evening of Wednesday, August 24th, why not try your luck at Bingo, eyes down at 7.30pm in the village hall.

On Thursday 25th August at 7.30pm why not come along to the village to find out more about the amazing work carried out by the Devon Air Ambulance and how money raised is put to good use. Hawkchurch Village Fete Committee are proud to have supported the Devon Air Ambulance for many years, and they are again one of the main beneficiaries of this year's Grand Raffle.

Fun Family Rounder's match on Friday, August 26th. Simply turn up at 6pm and enjoy a traditional game of rounders. This will be followed by BBQ and Children's Disco in the marquee on the Playing Field from 8pm. All Welcome.

Saturday, August 27th will see the return of the Teddy Bears Picnic and Parachute Jump. This event made its debut eight years ago and is as popular as ever. The teddy bears picnic will see a number of fun activities for the children. The main event of the afternoon of course will be the teddy bear parachute jump from St John the Baptist Church Tower. Children under 16 are invited to make a parachute for their teddy bears and prizes will be awarded for best decorated parachute. (Please note that parachutes not made to the organiser's instructions will not be eligible to enter. For parachute design instructions contact Meeri Wallace 01297 678538).

The event starts at 12noon, please arrive by 12.30 if you are entering the competition and don't forget your picnic. Teddies parachute off the tower at 1pm.

A popular family event in the village for the past 20 years, the Hawkchurch Companion Dog Show, will once again be taking place on Sunday, August 28th at the village playing field. Everybody is welcome to attend with classes for pedigree and non pedigree dogs, there is something for everyone. To find out if your dog has the waggiest tail or the most appealing eyes, be there for 2pm when judging starts. For schedules of classes, contact Christine Bright (01297) 678498.

In the evening, brush up on your general knowledge for a Fun Quiz Night at The Old Inn. The quiz starts at 8pm and quiz entry is just £1 per person. Teams of no more than 5 people please.

The highlight of the weekend, the annual Hawkchurch village fete, will take place on bank holiday Monday, August 29th at 2.00pm. Entertainment will be provided throughout the afternoon in the main ring with dog agility displays by the Coombefield Dog Agility Team and displays by Karizma Majorettes. Children's entertainment will be provided by Professor Bumble. Music will be provided by the WYSiWYG and The Hawkchurch Community Choir.

As well as the main ring entertainment there will be a whole host of stalls, games and side shows including Craft marquee, bouncy castle, face painting, coconut shy, skittles and much much more. The Church Tower will also be open (weather permitting) Teas, cakes, ice creams and licensed bar will be available all afternoon as well as a BBQ.

So why not go along and join in all the fun for a great family bank holiday weekend in Hawkchurch.

▲ The Karizma Majorettes put on a display.

Atomic Blondie

CELEBRATING over 30 years of Blondie don't miss this ultimate tribute - Atomic Blondie!

Blondie had six UK number one singles, two UK number one albums and six top ten albums, and Heart Of Glass alone sold over a million copies! Few acts can match their 20 year span of number one hits.

Atomic Blondie play at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Friday, August 19th at 8pm.

Tickets are £14 or £12, available from the box office at www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

Atomic Blondie's 'Debbie Harry'

Flamboyand and flame-haired folk

IN THE space of just a few years, Miranda Sykes & Rex Preston have emerged to become one of the most sought after duos on the English folk and roots scene. The striking combination of the flame headed double bass player and virtuoso mandolin player create music that Folk Roots say is: "A musical partnership made in heaven. Scintillating, sensitive and brilliant!"

Well known for the last 10 years as a central component of Show of Hands, Miranda has an exquisite and spine-tingling voice, whilst Rex, with his exuberant and flamboyant playing style, has built a reputation as one of the finest mandolin players in the UK. Their stunning performance brings precision, delight, wonder and warmth to their live shows.

Miranda Sykes and Rex Preston play live at Dorchester Corn Exchange on Saturday, September 24th at 8pm (doors and bar 7.30pm). Tickets are £12, £10 members and concessions, from www.dorchesterarts.org.uk or by calling 01305 266926.

New 'And Finally... Phil Collins' tour comes to Weymouth

PREPARE yourself for Another Day in Paradise as the UK's Official Number One Phil Collins tribute show comes to a venue near you.

Ahead of a much-anticipated 2017 European tour, including gigs at the renowned La Cigale in Paris, and having recently been endorsed by Bernard Loiseau, the band are set to bring their award winning performance to Weymouth Pavilion on Sunday, September 18th 2016.

'And Finally... Phil Collins' are recognised throughout the industry as the market leaders and definitive Phil Collins and Genesis tribute show. Now in their eighth year together this truly amazing eleven piece band, which includes the 'And Finally Horns', faithfully re-create all the classic Phil Collins and Genesis hits such as 'Easy Lover', 'Two Hearts', 'Sussudio' and 'Invisible Touch'. In 2016, as part of their major re-launch, there are over sixty theatre dates with a brand-new show that has been truly enhanced with new lighting, stage sets and world class musicians to get even closer to that immense Phil Collins production to ensure an exciting spectacle is totally guaranteed. As always the 'two drummer' line up remains an integral part of the act but in 2016 the addition of a dedicated percussionist performing the Louis Conte role, has moved the 'And Finally' experience both musically and visually to a whole different league. Just when you thought it couldn't get any better... it did!

This year, in 2016 'And Finally... Phil Collins' were voted for the second time by the 'Agents Association of Great Britain' at the 'National Tribute Awards' as the 'Official UK No. 1'.

Tickets cost £20 (Concessions £18) and are available from the Weymouth Pavilion Website (weymouthpavilion.com) or by calling the Box Office on 01305 783225.

How To Be A Middle Aged Woman (Without Going Insane)

FOLLOWING a complete sell-out spring tour professional grumpy old woman, Splash survivor, amateur soup maker, and novice knitter Jenny Eclair extends her hit tour into the autumn.

Jenny is younger than Madonna but eats crisps and likes wine. Semi-bearded and suffering from outbreaks of gout and hysteria, Eclair puts middle age under the microscope and decides whether to laugh, cry or buy a dachshund! You are most welcome to join her, just button your cardi up properly and wipe that lipstick off your teeth.

Jenny Eclair brings her show 'How To Be A Middle Aged Woman (Without Going Insane)' to Dorchester Corn Exchange on Wednesday, October 5th at 8pm (doors and bar 7.30pm).

Tickets are on sale now at £17.50 and £15.50 members and concessions. To book visit www.dorchester-arts.org.uk or by calling 01305 266926.

Illyria, Ahoy! or... Pirate Shakespeare

VISIT the Isle of Illyria at the Marine Theatre, for a special re-telling of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night for children. A pirate captain and his first (and only) mate, await your company on deck to help tell this salty tale...

So, hoist the main sails, jig the hornpipe and climb the rigging as Theatre in a Bag present a classic story re-imagined, with live music and lashings of participation.

There be love. There maybe romance too...But strictly no parrots. Yellow stockings optional.

Illyria, Ahoy! or... Pirate Shakespeare comes to the Marine Theatre on Wednesday, August 24th, with performances at 2pm and 4pm.

Tickets are £8 and £6 concessions for each performance, and LYT members can come for £1.

For more details and to book visit the website at www.marinetheatre.com or call 01297 442138.

Acclaimed Festival Players Theatre Company bring Hamlet to Abbotsbury

THIS YEAR is the 400th anniversary of the nation's – and arguably the world's – greatest playwright, William Shakespeare, and The Festival Players Theatre Company is proud to present his most famous play, Hamlet. This theatre company from Gloucestershire, which has been touring professional outdoor Shakespeare productions for over 30 years, is taking the play across the UK and into Europe until August 31st.

Presented in full costume, an all-male company brings the excitement of this great thriller: intrigue, ghostly visitations, passion, a play-within-a-play, a gripping duel, and humour, in a crystal-clear and fast-paced two-hour production.

Thought to have been first performed in 1600 and possibly the greatest tragedy in the English language, Hamlet is a story of revenge. Hamlet, the Prince of Denmark, is haunted by the ghost of his father, who tells him that he was murdered by his own brother, Claudius. Claudius not only wears the late king's crown but has also married his wife, Gertrude, Hamlet's mother. Hamlet has lost his father and his opportunity to be king, and possibly his sanity; can he believe the ghost, and if so how should he exact revenge? And who else will suffer along the way?

A small cast of six play multiple roles demanding quick costume changes, as well as performing as singers and musicians. This gives an exciting opportunity for the actors to show their energy and versatility. It will be directed by Worcestershire based Dyer, former director of Cornwall's Minack Open Air Theatre.

This will be Dyer's 12th all-male production in a row for the Players. "It is of course totally authentic – we are following in the footsteps of Shakespeare's own Globe Theatre when all roles were taken by men. The Players have built a reputation for strong, all-male shows over the past eleven years."

Music has been specially written for Hamlet by folk star Johnny Coppin (front man of the cult Seventies folk-rock group Decameron). Gloucestershire-based Coppin, who regularly tours the folk and acoustic circuit, adds a special ingredient with his original songs and instrumentals involving all the cast.

The performance of Hamlet at Abbotsbury Subtropical Gardens takes place on Saturday, August 27th at 7.00pm. Tickets are £14, £12 concessions, available by calling 01305 871130. This is an open air performance, and the grounds will open at 6.30pm. Bring your own seating and a picnic.

A Day's Work

AN INSPIRATIONAL folk-opera A Day's Work is being performed at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, September 17th at 7.30pm. The piece is a tribute to the ordinary men and women whose lives were shattered by the First World War in this the centenary year of the Battle of The Somme.

The show's name came from the famous line a dying soldier, Thomas Atkins, once said to the Duke of Wellington on his first day of battle. "It's all in a day's work, Sir." Many years later, the 'Tommies' who were named after him did another day's work at The Somme. They died in thousands.

Summer 2016 has been the centenary of that battle, and Bridport Arts Centre marks this with a unique 'folk opera'. Written by Mick Ryan, well known on the folk scene and beyond for his singing and song-writing, and featuring twenty new songs, A Day's Work tells the story of a group of mummies. Most of them join up, but one refuses. The comedy of their roles as mummies is tragically replayed at the front. With a cast of wonderful folk singers and musicians, including twice BBC Folk Award winners Greg Russell and Ciaran Algar, and former Bridport resident Pete Morton, the show provides an evening of laughter, tears, choruses and powerful story telling in speech, song and drama.

The show takes place at Bridport Arts Centre on Saturday, September 17th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £12 and £10, available from www.bridport-arts.com or by calling 01308 424204.

The Watkins & Swarbrick Band They're jamming

AS PART of their Village Halls tour, The Watkins & Swarbrick Band bring their unique brand of wide-ranging acoustic music to Briantspuddle on Saturday September 24th at 8pm.

Ken Watkins and Simon Swarbrick are musicians who have been playing together on and off for years and this affinity translates into a truly moving live performance.

World-class fiddle player, Simon Swarbrick, nephew of folk icon, the late Dave Swarbrick, is equally at home on mandolin, acoustic, electric and bass guitars.

Ken Watkins is a masterful portrayer of songs and has a long history of musical performance in the area. As a guitarist, he also plays ukulele and banjo, and is known for his sensitive renditions of Richard Thompson, Don McLean and James Taylor songs. His repertoire moves from mellow jazz standards, such as 'The Very Thought of You' to an impassioned version of Bob Dylan's 'Masters of War' and a smattering of his own compositions.

Augmenting the line-up is acclaimed singer, Lucy Watkins, whose appealing vocal tone and bluesy performances always captivate an audience. The 3-part vocal harmonies between Ken, Lucy and Angela Heron Watkins have been described as a 'wonderful blend'.

Throw in plenty of informality, some lively banter and a few witty observations of life, and you have all the ingredients for a relaxed and informal evening.

There is no admission cost or tickets. Instead people are asked to pay whatever they think the performance was worth by putting money in the guitar case by the door before they leave!

It is essential to book seats by ringing the Box Office on 01305 837299.

There is no bar but people are welcome to bring their own drinks. Doors are open from 7.30pm.

The performance starts at 8pm.

BROADWINDSOR Jammers will be performing in Bucky Doo Square, Bridport on Wednesday, August 31st, from 10am-12noon.

Born out of twice-monthly jam sessions over the last two years, the group will perform a selection of popular sing-a-long songs from the 50s, 60s and 70s, and hope for plenty of audience participation!

Tamsin and Friends for trio of Concerts

CONCERTS in the West's September concert series promises to be sensational as it features the outstandingly gifted violinist Tamsin Waley-Cohen who has already wowed CitW audiences in the past. Tamsin will be in good company with Emma Parker, also on violin, Rosalind Ventris, viola and Nathaniel Boyd, cello - all are equally talented chamber musicians, who have played in the main London venues and abroad.

Described by the Birmingham Post as "gloriously warm and eloquent", Tamsin has had an adventurous and varied career and has a passion for chamber music - to such a degree that she started the Honeycomb Festival, which is now in its ninth year. Her musical career began with her studying at the Royal College of Music, since when she has played concerts with the Royal Philharmonic, London Philharmonic and BBC orchestras.

Emma Parker has had a busy career, too, having performed with the Academy of Ancient Music, Irish Baroque Orchestra and Jonathan Cohen's Arcangelo. She is in great demand as a session player and enjoys collaborations with other chamber ensembles.

Rosalind Ventris is one of the most sought after young violinists internationally - both as a soloist and as a chamber musician. She has played at the Royal Festival Hall, Wigmore Hall and Bridgewater Hall. At the 2013 Lionel Tertis International Viola Competition she scooped five prizes!

Nathaniel Boyd graduated with a first class honours from the Royal Northern College of Music (RNCM) in 2005. Since then he has won several prizes and has appeared regularly with orchestras, such as the RNCM Symphony Orchestra. He plays a Grancino cello of 1695 and is currently a postgraduate student at the RNCM.

Catherine Hodgson, founder and director of Concerts in the West says she is delighted to be welcoming back Tamsin. "She played for us in 2014 and her elegance and intensity blew people away. Tamsin has tremendous charisma and her playing is utterly inspiring. The programme that she and her fellow equally brilliant musicians will be playing will, I believe, really lift people away from the pressures of life. I can't wait to hear them playing at our familiar venues and a new one, which I hope people will try - the Baptist Chapel in Crewkerne, Somerset."

Tamsin and Friends play at Bridport Town Hall (DT6 3HA) on Friday, September 2nd 11am-12pm. Tickets are £10 (concessions available) - Coffee included, available from box office 01308 456722.

The group will then perform at Ilminster Arts Centre at The Meeting House, East Street, Ilminster, Somerset TA19 0AN, on Friday, September 2nd at 8pm. Box Office: 01460 55783 9.30am-4.30pm Monday to Friday (Pre-concert supper is available for £13 at 7pm, but advanced booking is required) www.themeetinghouse.org.uk Tickets: £15. Bar and café, IAC and town parking, plus car parks, disabled access.

Completing the trio of concerts will be a performance on Saturday, September 3rd at 7.30pm (doors open at 6.45pm) at The Baptist Chapel, North Street, Crewkerne, Somerset TA18 7AL. For advance bookings please email concertsinthewest@gmail.com or telephone 07776 995789. You can also buy on the night from 6.45pm. Tickets: £15. If you are new to the series, you can bring a friend for £7.50. Interval drinks. Town parking and car parks

Tickets can also be booked by texting 07776 995789 or by post to 8 Morgans Rise, Bishops Hull, Taunton, TA1 5HW.

Bring a friend for free: Concerts in the West ticket holders may bring for free one friend who has never attended a Concerts in the West performance before. Concerts in the West would like to encourage more children and students to attend concerts and we offer the following discounts: Children/Students age 12 years and over:

Tamsin Waley-Cohen

half price, and Children under 12 years of age: Free entry with a family member

For further information about this concert and the 2016 concert series, please contact Catherine Hodgson, Director, Concerts in the West. Tel: 01460 53500, email: concertsinthewest@gmail.com. or visit www.concertsinthewest.org

Korando LE drives additional value this autumn

THE new 2.2 litre SsangYong Korando crossover is now available as a special LE model, and features a wealth of additional luxury equipment that includes 18" diamond cut alloy wheels, sat nav & sidesteps. It is finished in white, metallic black, blue and new Galaxy Green.

Powered by a new powertrain featuring a 2.2 litre diesel Euro 6 engine, the LE comes in two-wheel drive with either a 6-speed manual or Aisin 6-speed automatic transmission for smooth gear changing and an enhanced driving performance.

"This is a great-value addition to the Korando range," says Paul Williams, CEO of SsangYong Motor UK, "and adds several thousand pounds' worth of equipment on top of the already comprehensive specification. Korando delivers unrivalled levels of equipment and value, and no other car in its class has such a strong towing capability, nor such a comprehensive warranty for complete peace of mind."

The newly developed e-XDi220 diesel engine meets the demand for a more powerful performance and lower CO2 emissions. Maximum power of 178ps and maximum torque of 400Nm are delivered from a low of 1,400rpm and maintained through a wide range up to 2,800rpm for smooth, progressive driving from the start. CO2 emissions are reduced to 139g/km, while fuel economy is up to 53.3mpg (Combined cycle).

Designed by the Italian styling house Giugiaro, the Korando sports stylish clear glass direction indicators, a piano black radiator grille and distinctive 18" diamond cut alloy wheels and sidesteps on this new LE.

The LE also features a 7" high-resolution touch screen with audio streaming from smart devices and a link to the rear view camera, as well as a TomTom navigation system, including a USB memory slot, Aux port and HDMI port.

Other features include automatic air conditioning, heated front seats, privacy glass, rear spoiler with high mounted LED brake light and rear parking sensors.

5 year limitless mileage warranty

All models in the SsangYong range are covered by a best-in-class 5 year limitless mileage warranty. Designed to be totally transparent and give customers complete peace of mind, 'limitless' means just that: not a maximum mileage condition that some brands impose in their small print. All the major mechanical components are covered including wheel bearings, suspension joints and bushes, steering joints, shock absorbers and even the audio system. Wearable components such as clutch discs and brake friction materials which could have their life reduced by poor driving are covered for one year or 12,000 miles, and the battery and paintwork for three years.

Made in Korea

SsangYong cars are manufactured in South Korea by SsangYong Motor, which is 73 per cent owned by the Indian engineering conglomerate Mahindra & Mahindra, and imported into the UK by SsangYong Motor UK. Established in 1954 it is Korea's oldest vehicle manufacturer and only 4x4 and SUV specialist producer. There are currently some 60 SsangYong dealers covering England, Northern Ireland, Scotland and Wales, with new locations being added to the network all the time.

E-type Round Britain Coastal Drive - seats to be auctioned for prostate cancer

"THE E-type Club ROUND BRITAIN COASTAL DRIVE, supporting Prostate Cancer UK" has set up an online auction platform for members of the public to bid for a half-day ride in the Jaguar E-type from the iconic film, The Italian Job.

Split into 18 daily stages, this unique event takes place between September 12 and 29, driving for the first time the entire entire coastal route of Great Britain with an average mileage of 180 per day. Details of the clockwise route can be found at www.e-typeclub.com where one can enter bids or donate on the JustGiving page.

Those entered include Ross Brawn, Erin Baker Daily Telegraph Motoring Editor, David Lillywhite Editor of Octane, Phil Bell Editor of Classic Cars and one of the greats of historic racing, Willie Green. The original Jaguar dynasty will be represented by Sir William Lyons's grandson, Bill Heynes's son and Wally Hassan's son.

The world's favourite sports car was designed by the legendary Malcolm Sayer. His daughter Mary will be participating and giving a talk on her fascinating father, who designed the Le Mans-winning C-types and D-types and was the first to design a production car mathematically, during the Cromer evening. Sayer was born in Cromer and the house is denoted with a blue plaque.

A growing programme of evening events is developing. The following evening the participants and media will be entertained at the amazing premises of J.D Classics in Maldon.

The media and public are being offered the opportunity to ride in various E-types taking part. The JustGiving page is available for those who would like to support the event and Prostate Cancer UK.

"Publicity is unashamedly the name of this game," says author Philip Porter whose brainchild this event is. "We are out to raise awareness of the risks of prostate cancer and the need to get tested. If you like, this three-week driving party for a great cause is a publicity stunt with over 150 fabulous E-type Jaguars."

"To join in and experience a ride in a stunning E-type, please bid for a seat with me in my Italian Job convertible or one of the other fantastic E-types taking part. Having recovered from prostate cancer, it's now 'exciting times'!"

Porter is not only celebrating his recovery but also the publication of his latest book, the first volume of his definitive biography of Sir Stirling Moss, which will be launched at the Goodwood Revival meeting immediately before the start of the Round Britain Coastal Drive. 'It is such a mammoth tome that if I can carry a few during the event it will certainly keep the back end down!'

The facts:

Daily Stages (finishing point): Lyme Regis (Day 1), Penzance (2), Bridgwater (3), Tenby (4), Criccieth (5), Blackpool (6), Carlisle (7), Largs (8), Kyle of Lochalsh (9), Kinlochbervie (10), Inverness (11), Montrose (12), Berwick-upon-Tweed (13), Bridlington (14), Cromer (15), Maldon (16), Folkestone (17), Goodwood (18).

Significant Jaguar Destinations: Blackpool (where the company was founded) and Cromer (where E-type designer Malcolm Sayer was born).

Jaguar E-type Club: formed in 2004, the Club has members in over 50 countries and organises events worldwide. The accent is on using cars and not on polishing!

Prostate Cancer UK: the E-type Club Round Britain Drive is being organised in conjunction with the charity Prostate Cancer UK. Although UK-based, this charity is raising funds to find a cure for one of the most common cancers in men in the world. It is equally important to raise awareness.

Philip Porter: has owned his two historic E-types for 40 years. They are 9600 HP, the oldest E-type in existence, the original Geneva launch car and road test car which set the magic 150mph legend and appeared in all the newspapers and magazines. And 848 CRY, which was raced extensively in 1961 and later appeared in the film The Italian Job. Porter has written around 30 motoring books, including two award-winning major works on the Jaguar E-type, and founded the Jaguar XK Club, the Jaguar E-type Club and Porter Press International, the world's leading publisher of quality motoring books. He has recently recovered from prostate cancer.

The Jaguar E-type: The E-type was a sports car produced by Jaguar Cars between 1961 and 1974. Owned by pop and rock stars, such as George Harrison and Mick Jagger, footballers such as George Best, and many leading actors, the E-type was very much a part of the Swinging Sixties, together with mini skirts, mods on scooters, the Beatles, the King's Road, Mary Quant and Twiggy.

E-types were raced successfully in many parts of the world, including at Le Mans and in the USA. They often beat their main rivals, the Ferraris. The E-type racers included World Champions Sir Jackie Stewart, John Surtees OBE, Sir Jack Brabham and Graham Hill. E-types appeared in many films and have many times been voted the public's favourite sports car, most beautiful car and most sexy car. The E-type is the ideal car to publicise prostate cancer.

Fund-raising: passenger seats for half days will be auctioned. This is just one of the initiatives being worked on. The crew of the car that has raised the most funds per day will lead off and wear the Yellow Jersey (actually a Yellow Hat!). Corporate sponsorship is invited.

Hyundai Motor to give away UK's first IONIQ Hybrid as part of Mercury Prize partnership

IN CELEBRATION of the start of the three-year title partnership of the Hyundai Mercury Prize, Hyundai UK has today launched the giveaway of the UK's first IONIQ Hybrid through a social media campaign.

The competition will be hosted on Hyundai UK's social media channels, including @Hyundai_UK on Twitter, as well as Hyundai UK on Facebook and @HyundaiUK on Instagram. Entrants will need to join in the conversation for a chance to win by either tweeting using #HyundaiMercuryPrize on Twitter, or commenting on any post relating to #HyundaiMercuryPrize that is posted to Hyundai UK's Facebook or Instagram feeds.

In addition to the main IONIQ giveaway, there will also be 12 VIP spot prizes available which will include a pair of tickets to the Hyundai Mercury Prize 2016 Awards Show with one night's accommodation, a travel cost allowance and transfers.

VIP package prize winners will be announced after 29 August. Participants will have until 23 September to enter the competition to win the UK's first IONIQ Hybrid

The All-New Hyundai IONIQ, priced from £19,995, is the world's first car offering three electrified powertrains: IONIQ Hybrid, IONIQ Electric and IONIQ Plug-in. The line-up aims to make low- to zero-emission mobility more accessible to more people. Hyundai's innovative approach delivers an uncompromising design and driving experience, the latest connectivity and safety features with an enhanced industry-leading warranty-package.

Follow the hashtag #HyundaiMercuryPrize for more information about the competition and for exclusive Mercury Prize content from Hyundai.

DORSET FUNERAL PLAN LEAGUE

Premier League

Dorchester v Stalbridge – late result
Poole Town v Martinstown
MARTINSTOWN won the toss and elected to bat on a difficult surface at Poole Park.

After an early flurry of boundaries, Lee House was caught behind and the introduction of the slow bowlers stifled the scoring.

After a partnership of 78, George Pope was stumped for an elegant 46 and Ed Nichols (48) followed not long after.

Positive innings from Ben Lawes (38) and Teddy Andrews (25) saw the visitors post a competitive 195-8.

In reply, Poole rattled along initially at 6 an over but James Pickering (1-30) and Chris Read (3-62) claimed early wickets.

Once again spin slowed the run rate and Lawes looked to have turned the game in Martinstown's favour with a fine spell of 3 for 18 including the impressive Tom Robinson (46).

Despite fellow spinners Ryan Chase and George Pope further tightening the screw, the dangerous David Miller remained at the crease and found an able partner in Jon Salt.

As the required rate climbed towards seven an over, the pair began to play their shots and the returning Read ended the crucial 77-run partnership with the wicket of Salt (40), caught by a diving Nichols.

However Miller would not be deterred and eventually saw his side home by three wickets with an over to spare, finishing on a match-winning 47*

Nearly 90 turnout for three-man medal event

SUNDAY saw 87 men playing the three-man open, a medal round with two scores to count; 15 away teams and 14 home teams competed but many of the home teams had an away player.

The weather was absolutely glorious and the day was enjoyed by all players.

The results were: 1st, P.Hart, D.Miners and L.Craddock, 129 points; 2nd, G.Gerrard, M. Savage and P.Lathy, 132 points; 3rd, R.Tipp, S. Bull and S. Griff, 134 points

The Carnival Cup, an annual mixed Stableford competition, was won this year by the ladies vice captain Janie Dowling with a score of 36 points.

Two players had 34 points but the runner-up on countback was Martin Dennen with third place going to Peter Johnson.

LADIES' SECTION

SATURDAY and Tuesday saw the ladies playing an EG Medal and, on Tuesday, they also played the first round of the Janet Holmes Cup.

The weather forecast was a bright and sunny day but when the clouds rolled in it was decidedly chilly for those of dressed in shorts!

RESULTS: Division 1 – 1st, Toshiko Ricketts, 88-16=72; 2nd, Judy Walters, 99-15=77. Division 2 – 1st, Lyn Jessopp, 97-26=71; 2nd, Liz Thompson, 100-22=78. Division 3 – 1st, Avril Brown, 111-35=76; 2nd, Sue Pollock, 112-33=79

VETERANS' SECTION

THE Veterans' Thursday competition was the Roy Thompson Cup, a medal off the white tees.

The weather was fine and warm but there was a stiff breeze which seemed to be doing its best to carry drives into the thick rough.

This resulted in 13 of the 49 entrants handing in N/R cards.

The winner of the cup was David Cotgrove and his nett 70 score was 2 shots clear of his closest rival.

The winner of Division One was George Brown with a nett 72 and runner-up was Ian Thacker scoring a nett 73.

The second man in Division Two was Allan Huntington with 72 points.

RESULTS: Division One – 1st, George Brown 85-13=72 (Lowest gross); 2nd, Ian Thacker 88-15=73; 3rd, Brian Fearon 86-12=74. Division Two – 1st, David Cotgrove, 97-

27=70; 2nd, Allan Huntington, 100-28=72; 3rd (acb) Alan Bentley 100-25=75. Cotgrove received a one shot handicap cut.

MIXED

IN THE Midweek Mixed Stableford the rose among the 13 thorns, Julie Oliver (15) came second with 31 points.

Her husband Martin also came second only it was from the other end of the leaderboard.

The winner was Angus Nicoll (16) scoring 34 points; Marc Harwood (12) took the third spot after count-back with 30 points.

Bridport Bowls

Bridport win the Presidents Cup final against Greenhill

Outdoor

ON SUNDAY, August 7th Bridport men beat Greenhill in the final of the Presidents Cup. In the DL first division against Greenhill they also had a good result again against Greenhill A winning on 2 out of the 3 rinks and overall 69-50, Brian Rumbles team going down by 12 shots.

Brian Conisbees rink won well 32-8, Chris Thorns' rink struggled at first but a seven gave them a five shot win. The 'A' team v Dorchester A also had a good win 66-48 overall and 10 points. Fred Pomeroy, John Tunney, Steve Bartlett and Ken Sanger won 22-18.

It was a game of two halves with Bridport 20-8 on 15th end and then nearly lost it conceding ten shots over the next six ends.

Roy Lidington, Mike Stephenson, John Carter and Tom Tocher won 22-11 – a good solid game leading all the way from the third end.

John Ireland, Peter Scott, Bob Seadon and Bob Taylor won 22-19 in what was a close game throughout but a welcome five on the 15th end helped to get a 3 shot win 22-19.

The 'B' team beat Dorchester B 61-40, making it a hat-trick of wins for the Gents. Peter Harrison, Chris Hall, Arthur Stone and Mike Solomon had a runaway victory leading all the way 24-10.

Brian Parker, John Block, Dave Smith and Mike Craddock had a good second half scoring on eight of the last ten ends to win 18-11.

Sam Dunn, Brian Stone, Brian Pratt and Mel Griffiths came back well from 6-14 down on the tenth end to score one on the last end and draw 19-19 to secure nine points.

The men also played a back game in the SDL 'B' v Dorchester A. Dave Roberts, Steve Bartlett, Brian Iverson and Ken Sanger had a good revival after being on five for five ends and were unlucky to lose 15-17.

Fred Pomeroy, Mike Stephenson, Ian Newitt and Barry Shortland were in a well fought game – a well deserved 19-18 win. Roy Lidington, M. Solomon, Tom Tocher and Bob Taylor unfortunately had nothing go right for them 8-27; overall 42-62, just two points.

The ladies had no first division game due to the England Championships where the Bridport quartet of Frances Hewitt, Alison Tibble, Melodie Watts and Margaret Clapp had two very good wins and were so close to the quarter finals being 18-18 on 19th end but narrowly lost 18-21 in the crucial third round.

The second team did themselves proud again winning 59-56. Jean Seadon, Jill Willcox, Marion Tocher, Dinah Wilson 22-17; Mary Corfield, Pam Gray, Pauline Newitt and Janet Tattershall 12-22; Lynn Craddock, Chris Robbins, Margaret Strange and Marion Carter had a close game until the 15th end when they scored six and went on to win 25-17, getting eight points.

The Men's SDL 'B' against Greenhill away struggled against the opponents 'A' team, taking just the one point with Roy Lidington, Brian Iverson, Tom Tocher and Barry Shortland having a good game – 13 all at 16th end, 14-16 at the 20th and scoring two on the 20th to draw 16-16.

Dave Roberts, Steve Bartlett, Paul Tibble and Ken Sanger had a good first half but fell away to lose 12-24. Fred Pomeroy, Mike Stevenson, Bob Seadon and Bob Taylor got off to a bad start although they pulled back in the second half 14-23, 142-63 overall.

The Saturday friendly against tourists Three Mile Cross was played in competitive good spirits and welcome sunshine – very close with Bridport winning 3-2 on rinks and 87-81 overall. The top rink was Michael Higman, Janet Bird, John Carter and Mike Solomon 23-14.

Sunday's friendly against Seaton was another good game again in lovely sunshine and at the 15th end three of the four rinks were ahead – however the visitors put paid to that and with only one winning rink Bridport lost 76-98. Top rink was Joan Smith, Peter Harrison, Mike Craddock and Fred Pomeroy.

Indoor

Brian Baker, Nova Varney and Chas Clarke's Gunners now have a four point lead at the top of the Morning League after a 11.8 win over the Foxes.

Peter Varney, Len Guppy and Bob Hill's Hammers did the Gunners a favour, beating second placed Canaries 19.15.

Hill has always been a master tactician in dictating the jack length to his sides advantage and once again this proved decisive.

Kay Cox, Anne Parkins and Brian Legg's Spurs went third with a 11.7 win over the Cherries. Mike Parsons, Bernard Perry and Chris Everest's Glovers, Tony Bartlett, Joan Higman and Bernard Winton's Potters and Maureen Hicks, Chris Thorne and Phil Tattershall's Pensioners had 16.8, 14.7 and 12.7 wins over Red Devils, Toffees and Maggies respectively.

Norma Eccles, Steve Glover and Keith Jenkins Pugilists shot into a 13.0 lead on their way to a 17.8 win over the Swimmers to retain top spot in the Evening League.

Roy Gill, Parkins and David Jenkin's Fencers leapfrogged the Divers to go back second after a 14.9 win over the Wrestlers. Divers were beaten 19.9 by Maureen Hicks and Sylvia and Mike Fletcher's Hurdlers 19.9.

Lyn and Peter Sandall and Hill's Cyclists cruised to a 20.6 win over the Archers, capping a great week for Hill. Julie Bright, Di Neal and Margaret Pestelle's Gymnasts finished 32.1.2.1 to beat the Rowers 19.6. Brian Toms, John Davies and Keith Hicks's Equestrians beat the De-cathletes 14.11.

Lyme Regis Regatta

It's a 'one-two' for Lyme sailors

LYME Regis Sailing Club hosted a highly successful 95th anniversary regatta over the weekend of August 6th and 7th.

Fifty sailing boats took part, from the oldest to the newest designs, the fastest to the slowest, with every-one entering the traditional Championship of the Day in conditions described as 'champagne sailing'.

There were three handicap classes with a series for nine visiting Larks, practicing in advance of their National Championships which begins on Saturday.

Winds on Saturday were light but consistent, easing off on Sunday after a blustery night but swinging through 90 degrees just as the race committee were laying the morning course, before returning to a SW direction with some waves for crews to play.

Courses had a long beat, while using average lap calculations enabled the slowest and fastest in a each class to be held to a 60 minutes finishing time and quick turnarounds for subsequent races.

Unfortunately, wind direction, avoiding tripping boats and crab pots, meant less opportunity for an in-shore course for spectators to view.

Following a good start in the Championship of the Day, crew Will Broom and his helm Joe Joyner then had to watch the following fleet creeping up on them as the wind filled in before picking up themselves and making the most of the long beats.

Douglas Bird in his Morcombe Bay Prawner added colour and interest, a traditional sailing boat contrasting with the flying RS 800s.

Visiting cruisers from Axe added to a seven strong class, with Pete Lloyd returning to win race three with Pete Fortnam in his Medina.

Lyme sailors won first and second places in the Championship, with Cameron Moss taking the Regatta Youth Cup for first under 18s helm at the regatta.

■ CELEBRATIONS at the end of the anniversary Regatta

Champ of Day of the day was 3. Simon Heusen, LRSC, Supernova.

A donation was made by Commodore Jerry Rook to the Regatta chairman Andy Brown who had tea at the club with treasurer Sharon Davies.

Winning helm Joe Joyner thanked the club and race committee for excellent racing on home waters.

The Commodore praised the work of his water and shore teams and thanked Gilly and Paul Bryant for the gourmet supper on Saturday evening.

The Harbourmaster and his staff who assisted with launching and storage facilities were also thanked, and the co-operation of harbour users much appreciated.

The Lark Nationals start on August 20th for four days, with the Youth Regatta at the end of the month.

Lyme Regis Bowls

Big win for Lyme Ladies at Branksome Park

LAST week the ladies had a good 8-2 win against Branksome Park, which has helped them to leave a bigger gap at the relegation end of the league.

The men in the South Dorset league were unlucky in their game against Bridport C where, despite winning on 2 rinks, they lost overall 4-6.

It was Lyme's turn to host Cardiff this year in the annual match, a game which the hosts won by a margin of four shots, giving them a rare success against the team from Wales.

The highlight of the week was Ann Allman's President's Day. Ann is the current Bowls Dorset Ladies Section President and on Wednesday she invited various dignitaries from within Dorset Bowls to come to Lyme, enjoy a not-too-competitive game of bowls followed by a lavish spread, once again prepared by catering officer Pauline Knight and her band of helpers.

Prior to the game the ladies enjoyed a glass of Pimm's or two and canapes. Ann thanked all the various people who had helped her in her role as president, pre-sending them with various gifts. Several of the men again donned dickie bows and helped with the drinks and clearing tables, etc.

During her year as president, Ann has been collecting for Dementia.uk.org as her chosen charity. With still a long way to go to the end of her presidency, Ann has already raised in excess of £1,000.

Congratulations must go to Paul Pomeroy who has won himself a place at Leamington in the last 16 of the National Champion of Champions competition.

The club wish him all the best, as this is an impressive achievement and helps put our club on the map.

A very successful RNLI drive took place on Saturday, the monies from which, added to the money raised at Chris' Carousel, will give a total of around £260 to donate to the RNLI.

Hill gives Magpies mountain to climb

TUESDAY 9TH AUGUST
EVO-STICK LEAGUE SOUTHERN Premier Division
Cinderford Town 4
Dorchester Town 0

TWO second half goals from Cinderford's Gethyn Hill ensured Dorchester Town's chances of recovering to score their first points in this season's Evo-Stik Southern Premier League were slim.

Having lost to Kettering on the opening day, the Magpies were hoping that they might have more success against newly promoted Cinderford.

However without manager Mark Jermyn who stood down as his wife was overdue with their second child which was due last week, Nathan Walker, Ben Wood, and the injured

by Stuart Broom
broom2006@btinternet.com

Chris Dillon, they struggled to find any real rhythm.

Zack Kotwica gave the Foresters the lead on 14 minutes who fired home at the far post.

Dorchester started to get back into the game and captain Jake Smeeton went close following Neil Martin's corner, whilst David Gerrard had their best opportunity of the first half when he curled his shot wide of the upright.

Hill missed the opportunity to score late in the first half when he failed to take advantage of an error by Shane Murphy.

Mario Mateus might have equalised early in the second half but fired over from close range before Hill took the game away from Dorchester with two goals midway through the half.

First he pounced to score after Murphy had parried Kotwica's shot, and a minute later a mix-up in the Magpies defence saw Jacob Morgan feed Hill who fired home.

Murphy prevented any further scoring with a number of fine saves but was beaten again three minutes from time when Karnell Chambers swept home Hill's cross.

● Dorchester went down again on Saturday, this time by three goals to nil, away to Chesham United. They played host to Cirencester Town last night.
